NEW JAZZ VOCALIST FOR THE VILLA

TEENAGE SINGING SENSATION SET FOR JAZZ DATE

Outline

Covering the likes of Roberta Flack, Norah Jones, Diana Krall, Michael Buble and Ella Fitzgerald in one night is no mean feat, but nineteen year old vocalist Sara Creeney takes it all in her stride. Sara, who hails from Preston, has performed at numerous high profile events across the Northwest, including a support slot alongside McFly. Creeney will join the resident Villa band, Dan Forshaw Quartet for an evening of laid back, light jazz classics that will suit almost any taste.

Body

Creeney, who has been compared to Elvis Costello's Grammy award winning wife Diana Krall, first performed at the Villa back in June. Sara so impressed the Villa crowd and promoter Dan Forshaw, that he invited her back for what will be the last jazz meeting at the Wrea Green venue of the year. Dan said, "We've had many vocalists appear at the Villa over the years and for me Sara's skills as a musician are right up there with the best."

Jazz nights at the award winning Villa Hotel in Wrea Green, constantly prove to be a huge success, drawing live music fans and jazz connoisseurs from around the Northwest area. The events are free to enter and start at 8pm.
